The 1961 Perley Gates

Perley High School

Georgetown Massachusetts

DEDICATION

Affectionately known as Uncle Ralph, he will always stand out in our memories of Perley High School as the one who was always "there." No matter what we wanted, no effort was ever too great. His helping hand in time of need, his willing ear in time of trouble, his sense of humor always at hand, he was an integral part of all our high school years. To Ralph Williams, we, the class of 1961, dedicate this, our "Perley Gates."

FRONT ROW: Mrs. Shaw, Miss Brown, Miss Davis, Miss Faraca, Carol N. Visser. REAR ROW: Mr. Noyes, Mr. MacMillan, M. Boynton, Mr. Leeman, Mr. Reardon, Mr. Mades.

The Class of 1961
 PERLEY HIGH SCHOOL
 Presents
 COME OUT OF YOUR COMA
 Arranged
 by Jay Tobias
 December 9, 1960

A. Ponsa,

a girl who certainly knows how to have fun never stop laughing! Always remember all the fun we've had together at the "Y," double-dating, and at school. Always remember New Year's Eve (how could you forget?!?!), the ice cream stand in No Underover (he was cute!), our "card games" at Balapate, and all the other things ~~which~~ we've done in the past few years. Best of luck always in the future.

Love ya,

Nary Anne

THIRD ROW: Manager Bean, Flanigan, T. Leonard, Fuller, Fiske, Judge, Boyd, Beaudoin, Elliot, Manager Maynard, Coach Leeman.

Football

Headlines!! Perley has fielded its first eleven-man football team! Although victories were few, the team gained immeasurable experience. The spirit was high as Perley gave each team a run for its money. With a few breaks going our way, Perley might have been undefeated this year. Most of the games were in doubt until the final period when the superior bench strength of the opponents made the difference. As the seasons progress, Perley will be a strong contender. The seniors wish the best of luck to next year's team.

Cross country and track are closely related, and this year there were some boys who played both. Perley's most outstanding track members were Fiske and Frazier. Jeans and Rodick are two promising young boys to watch in the next two years. Below are some records set at Perley.

Perley High School — Its History

Education on the secondary level in Georgetown started with the founding in 1855 of the original Georgetown High School. In 1860, Mr. John Perley, who claimed Georgetown as his home, left his entire estate, after several small bequests, to establish the Perley Fund of about $36,000, originally intended to subsidize a high school. The original high school, housed in the Town Hall, burned in 1898, and the Trustees of the Perley Fund established the Perley Free School, built on the same site as our present school. This school continued as a semi-private high school, filling adequately the needs of the youth of Georgetown for a secondary education. But by 1935 it was obvious that the Perley Fund would not be sufficient to meet the needs of this growing town much longer.

Fate stepped into the picture again when on January 28, 1935, the Perley Free School was almost totally destroyed by fire, in weather twenty degrees below zero. So the class of 1935 held their graduation exercises in the Grange Hall. At this point the Perley Fund Trustees turned over to the town the remains of the school building and forty thousand dollars with the stipulation that the name of John Perley should form a part of the name of the new school. Thus came about our Perley High School, no longer a private school but under the jurisdiction of the town and state.

The Perley Fund continued to assist the school in many ways. In 1949, for example, the Fund contributed fifty thousand dollars toward the building of our new gymnasium. The home economics and manual arts departments have been subsidized by the Perley Fund.

And now, with the increased population of Georgetown, the Perley High School has been outgrown, a new Georgetown High School has been built, and we, the class of 1961, become the last graduates of Perley High School.

'61 Class Last To Graduate From Present Schoolhouse

The new school will include 23 classrooms as compared with the present 10 rooms in use in the Perley High School. Two of those 10 rooms are basement rooms which have been in use as shop and home economics classrooms.

The 23 classrooms at the new school will not all be used at present by the high school classes. Eight of the rooms have been set aside for Grades 6, 7, and 8, which will be housed in the building temporarily. As the high school population grows these classes probably will move out.

Included in the new building's rooms will be an enlarged space for the shop, mechanical drawing, and home economics classes, which have been crowded for

The building committee for that school includes Donald Elliott, chairman; Paul Meader, secretary; Weldon Ray, Guy Christian, Charles Watson, Arthur Tyrie and Robert Rudolph.

Specialized Classrooms

Other specialized classrooms will include a biology lab, chemistry and physics lab, business room, typing and business machines rooms, and two labs for general science work.

The present Perley High School will continue to serve as a school. Next year the classrooms will be set up to house eight elementary classes, totaling almost 250 students, more than the present high school now contains.

Present plans call for the third, fourth and fifth grades classes to use the Perley School. The business room and lab will be remodeled to become elementary rooms. The upstairs auditorium which has been a study hall and classroom for the past eight years will again become a small auditorium, suited to school and community use.

Even though the class of 1961 is the last class to be graduated as such from the present Perley High School, the building probably has not seen its last high school graduation. The auditorium in the new school will not be large enough to accommodate the crowds attending graduation exercises. The new gym, although large enough, may not be used for gatherings such as graduations which would mean that the old Perley gym might still be in use.

ROLAND DARLING

Speaker No Stranger To Perley

GEORGETOWN — Tonight's graduation speaker was not a newcomer to Georgetown. Roland Darling, career specialist at Northeastern University, spoke at previous graduation exercises. He is also appeared in Perley High School in connection with his work.

Mr. Darling originally was a newspaper editor in Bar Harbor, Maine. During the depression period of the "30s" he became concerned with the future of young high school graduates in career fields. Leaving his newspaper work as a secondary pursuit he launched a career of helping these young people in occupational guidance work.

In 1939, at the New York World Fair, his work in this connection earned him an award. This, plus an article appearing in Reader's Digest, won him national acclaim and focused attention on the problem with which he was working. Mr. Darling has since devoted full time to his work as a career specialist.
